

Daily BookTrails Camp Packing List

- Campers should come to camp wearing an outfit that is suitable for outdoor exploration (we walk in high brush and forests), preferably not dresses/skirts/bare legs.
 - A hat that will protect from the sun
 - A good pair of walking shoes and a pair of water shoes in their backpack. Water shoes cannot be flip flops and need to have a strap. Keens, tevas, chacos, old tennis shoes, aqua socks, are recommended.
- In a comfortable backpack that can be worn for long periods:
 - Rain Gear (yes, it does rain sometimes in North Routt!!)
 - A towel for sitting– we will not be using our blankets this year due to COVID
 - Extra change of clothes, swimsuit, towel (can be in a tote bag or plastic grocery bag that will be left in the trailer)
 - Sweatshirt or warm layer
 - Sunglasses, if needed
 - Bagged lunch, with an ice pack. Afternoon snacks should also be included.
 - At least 1 liter of water
 - Sunscreen and bug spray LABELED with your child's name
 - An extra face mask
